

A few words about our school

mercredi 18 juin 2008

Built in 2006, the Lucie Aubrac High School serves students in grades 10-12. Situated in Bollene, in Provence, in the South of France, our High School prepares different types of baccalaureat especially scientific, economics, and literary sections.

The school is named after Lucie Aubrac who was a member of the French Resistance during the second World War. She died in 2006 at the age of 94.
